R.E.-Port

IT'S ALIVE!! As you saw last month, the CinChronizer has been brought back to life by our new editor Joe Kohls!! If you have an article or something you would like to contribute to future issues of the CinChronizer please email that directly to Joe at vamoose5@juno.com. So with Joe taking over the huge responsibility of the CinChronizer, he had asked to have his current term of Board Member-at-Large be filled by someone else, with unanimous approval at our October board meeting, Jim Clark will be fulfilling the rest of Joe's current term thru December 2015. Thanks again Joe & Jim, we look forward to your new leadership!

Speaking of changes in leadership, our 2015 Elections are coming up at our next monthly meeting on Tuesday, November 18th @ 8pm at the Mill Race Banquet Center (1515 West Sharon road, Cincinnati, OH 45240)! This will also be our last general membership meeting for 2014 (NO December meeting) as we get ready for our next big event, the annual Awards Banquet in January! More details on the banquet to come soon.

As the weather is turning colder and our program calendar is heading into hibernation, our Program chairs are busy planning for 2015! With our Race program adding a new location to the schedule for 2015 (National Corvette Museum track-Bowling Green, KY) and our Solo program building onto a stellar record of events from this year, there is a lot of work to do to get ready! If you are interested in volunteering to help shape these and other events for next year, please contact our event chairs, they would love to have your help!

Look forward to seeing everyone at the next meeting on November 18th at Mill Race!

Thanks, Tony Brown

SCCA Announces

2015 Majors Schedule, Moves to Five Conferences

TOPEKA, Kan. (Sept. 18, 2014) – The calendar for the 2015 SCCA U.S. Majors Tour was released today, with an announcement that the country will be divided into five Conferences for the 2015 season. The total number of events will remain the same in 2015 despite the Conference expansion, with select events counting for points in two Conferences.

The schedule divides what was previously the Eastern Conference into the Northeast Conference and the Southeast Conference, while the Mid-States, Northern and Western Conference remain intact.

“We’ve vowed from the beginning to adjust the U.S. Majors Tour to fit the needs of the competitors,” Lisa Noble, SCCA President/CEO, said. “We’ve done that for 2015, making the travel distance for the highly populated East coast manageable yet keeping the number of events the same, supporting our initiative to cluster competition.

“Even with the split, the Northeast and Southeast Conferences remain among the largest in competitor population size, and the schedule for the rest of the country is one we consider to be the best in the three years of the Majors Tour. Every effort has been made to accommodate the drivers in each Conference, and hit the tracks that racers have traditionally supported and pointed to as worthy of a Majors event.”
